

Parent Listening Night

-Hosted by the Flint Hills Area Transition Council

The Flint Hills Area Transition Council invites parents and caregivers of children with disabilities to attend Parent Listening Night, a supportive and informative event designed to foster connection, conversation, and access to new resources.

This event provides a welcoming space for parents to share their experiences, ask questions, and learn more about the services and supports available to their children and families. Your voice matters, and we want to hear about your challenges, successes, and needs.

Child-Friendly Support Available

We understand that attending events can be challenging for families. Staff will be available to help entertain and engage with children during the session.
